

Role

Asbestos Analyst/Bulk Identification

Location: Bradford

A growing asbestos consultancy is looking to recruit an Asbestos Analyst with Bulk Identification experience to join their team in Bradford.

The successful candidate will be responsible for; Analysis of bulk samples to determine the asbestos content with reference to HSE publication HSG 248 "Asbestos: The analyst's guide for sampling, analysis and clearance procedures". Attend operational team meetings as and when required.

Make every effort to complete workload within the required time scale. Work will include but not be limited to analysis of samples delivered to the laboratory, completion of Material Assessment Record forms, Completion of Analysis Test Data Sheets, booking in samples that have been received from site, closing down work on achiever, typing of certificates of analysis as and when required, ensuring that the laboratory is kept clean at all times.