

CHP Plant Engineers - Job Description

Engineers required for a number of prestigious long term energy supply contracts involving the supply of heat and electricity to a range of commercial units.

The ideal candidate will have previous experience in this field and the relevant industry qualifications. A good understanding of operations and maintenance, CHP systems/boiler plant and distribution systems on a commercial/industrial level is required.

All sites are in and around the London area.

There are a number of key outputs for the successful candidate to deliver, including:-

Reactive and Planned Maintenance

- Carry out the defined planned maintenance regime for all contractual obligations
- Carry out repairs, reactive maintenance and minor installation works on plant
- Attend, diagnose and repair faults having due regard to customer care in this specific environment
- Complete the relevant paperwork and report diligently
- Any other relevant duties that may be required

General

- Maintain all documentation and records to the highest standard
- Ensure jobs are closed down promptly to allow for timely invoicing
- Have an understanding of the contracts and charging structures
- Project a professional image at all times to external and internal customers, this is to include clear channels of communication
- Other tasks as directed by Line Management
- Operate at all times in accordance with Best Practice with regard to Equal Opportunities, recognise and value Diversity in the Workplace and demonstrate respect for others.
- Place the highest importance upon company Health and Safety policies and procedures
- Abide by company policies and procedures at all times
- Always represent the company in a professional manner

All activities are expected to be continuously improved over time.

Person Specification

- A relevant technical qualification Experience of CHP and boiler plant
- Experience of working on chillers, mechanical plant and boiler maintenance
- Understanding of CHP systems
- Fault-finding and practical skills
- Able to work unsupervised and function as part of a team

Reward Package

The opportunity to participate in the success of a growing business hungry for increased market share

Salary Up to a maximum of £30,000 (depending on qualifications and experience) after satisfactory completion of 3 months probationary period

Overtime and Call Out when pre-authorized by a Line Manager

Uniform

PPE

Mobile Phone for Business Use

Holiday: 23 days rising to 25 days after two years of completed service and by one day per five years of completed service thereafter to a maximum of 30 days

Pension: Individual contributions may be made from commencement. The Company contributes 5% after one year of completed service and, after two years completed service, 7.5% if matched by an individual contribution of 2.5%

Company Funded: Life Insurance
Dental Plan