

Role

Principal Environmental Consultant (Offshore)

Location: Flexible

Salary: Competitive

We are currently seeking a Senior Environmental Consultant to support the Director of Environment in delivering advice to clients in the renewable energy sector.

This role will report directly to the Head of Environment and will support him to lead the Environmental team delivering consultancy services to clients on Round 3 and other offshore renewable projects. The Senior Environmental Consultant will need an excellent understanding of key offshore renewable technologies, particularly offshore wind teamed with a comprehensive understanding of consenting processes, key stakeholders and survey methodologies. This post holder will need to not only deliver high standards in the environmental field but also display excellent People skills to support, develop and lead a diverse and dynamic team of consultants providing Consultancy services to clients

Essential

- Commercial and pragmatic ethos
- Excellent communication skills, both written and spoken
- Minimum of 2 years experience in marine renewable energy
- Good understanding of marine environmental issues
- Minimum of 5 years of environmental impact assessment (either onshore or offshore)

Advantageous

- Good understanding of other marine industries and their environmental impact
- Membership of IEMA or IEEM