

Role

Senior Quality Assurance Consultant

Location: UK South Coast or Scotland

Due to further expansion of the offshore business my client a consultancy specialising in Renewables are currently looking to recruit an exceptional Quality Assurance Consultant.

The primary responsibility for the Senior Quality Assurance Consultant is to effectively manage complex and multiple Quality Assurance Commissions and provide related consultancy services on quality assurance to clients, and manage teams of Quality Assurance Consultants and other related resources to expedite projects under his direction. It is also envisaged that the Quality Assurance Consultant may perform the activities of an account manager, if appropriate, and may have other managerial responsibilities associated with managing teams or offices.

Qualifications and Experience

- Degree Qualified in a Quality Assurance orientated or other relevant equivalent qualification and experience
- Min 5 years experience working within a leading consultancy or relevant industrial company, department or consultancy
- Min 3 years relevant experience either in client level quality assurance of projects including significant experience of quality management of renewable energy projects.

Key Accountabilities/Primary Responsibilities

- Manage and execute quality assurance or closely related commissions on renewable energy projects to deliver the project to the Client's requirements; in particular to cost, time and quality targets;
- Manage project related quality assurance related work, and lead on project scope definition;
- Actively maintain the knowledge and skills required to fulfill the role of Senior Quality Assurance Consultant and advance this capability by development and expansion industry leading processes and knowledge
- Manage the company's internal quality management function, including assisting with the direction and structure of the development of the company's policies and procedures in order to advance the continual improvement of the implementation, execution, maintenance and review of the companies control systems.
- Pro actively drive permanent process development for increased quality and effectiveness/productivity both internally within the organization and as seen by clients in the delivery of quality products and services;
- Responsible for the delivery of quality assurance projects; including very complex and large projects involving multiple resources and complex collaboration. Supervise Quality Consultants on quality projects and other consultants where they are involved in collaborative projects.
- Actively contribute to the growth of the company's operations; including participating in functional planning, marketing activities and activity management.

Role

- Attend and lead in meetings with Clients to raise and manage proposals define scope, inform them of progress, seek decisions and propose alternatives/offer additional services;
- Client account management activities on a range of accounts
- Provide further growth to the business through high levels of service delivery and being client facing;
- Collaboratively work with the other company functions to provide integrated customer focused services including the active promotion and encouragement of these activities;
- Fulfilling the role of Prime Mover on quality assurance projects and other projects involving quality assurance as a significant element when required and when within the competence of the Senior Quality Assurance Consultant.
- Actively pursue the skills necessary to expand the skills and knowledge necessary to engage in projects of greater complexity, size and collaboration.

Authorities

- To recommend Bid / no Bid decisions to the relevant Director; and advise other Managers as to the recommended bid decision on Quality Assurance and other related activities
- To identify and recommend appointment of project resources to the relevant Director
- To diligently work on project fulfillment, respecting project timing and budget.

Key Result Areas

Internal

- Director
- Excom and other Account Managers
- Quality Assurance Team
- Other members of company team on collaborative projects or in general activities

External

- Clients
- Related financial, technical commercial, legal and other advisors, consultants and agencies
- Utilities
- Developers
- Local Authorities
- Other Government Bodies
- Project Stakeholders