

Role

Wind Project Manager

Paris, France

Purpose of the role:

- Overall responsibility for the successful development of the wind energy projects
- Lead and coordinate negotiations with development partners
- Prepare project schedule including all major work packages and milestones
- Provide leadership, co-ordination, prioritization and management for the project team (e. g. prepare org-chart)
- Ensure appropriate coordination of interfaces between the team members
- Organize project meetings (in- and external)
- Challenge team to meet highest quality standards fulfilling all legal and internal requirements
- Initiate internal and external legal support
- Seek approval for decisions to be taken beyond the scope of the existing internal approvals
- Ensure appropriate contract management and execution in accordance with the scope of the contracts; ensure that the interfaces between the various contractors are managed properly
- Secure spending stays in line with budgets
- Identify, lead and coordinate acquisition projects for the Business Unit

Skills and experience required:

- Engineering degree, electrical engineering a plus
- Wind Project management experience
- Knowledge of wind farm design
- Excellent understanding of the regulatory framework
- Experience in dealing with external partners and local authorities
- Excellent communication skills in French
- Effective oral and written communication skills in English. German as a plus
- Excellent analytical and decision making skills
- Ability to manage multidisciplinary expert teams (e.g. technical, legal, financial)
- Knowledge of project economics
- Advanced knowledge of MS Office applications and MS Project; Planning (e.g. WindPro) and mapping (e.g. Arcview) software as a plus
- Strong value basis
- Excellent interpersonal and intercultural skills