

Senior Ecologist

South East - West Sussex

£-Attractive (includes relocation allowance if applicable)

Our client, a multi-disciplinary consultancy, has requirement for an experienced a Senior/Principal Ecologist who will manage a diverse range of projects and assist their growing team.

In order to be considered for this role you must have a minimum of 4 years relevant consultancy experience, excellent project management and communication skills and have expertise with protected species. You will hold survey licenses and be either a Full or Associate member of CIEEM.

For full requirements and details please email a copy of your CV and a cover lettering outlining your relevant experience to Becky quoting Job Ref: RB1496