

Geo-Environmental Senior Consultant

North East

£-Attractive

We are working with a leading Environmental Consultancy, who is looking for an experience Senior Consultant to join their team in the North East.

The position holder will be responsible for the management, financial and technical input to projects which will include provision of proposals, management of resources and subcontractors, project planning and where necessary the scheduling of laboratory testing. You will also be required to monitor sites and keep data assessments, reports and financial performance up to date.

To be considered you must have a full UK driving licence, a bachelor degree in a relevant subject and be able to demonstrate the appropriate qualifications and experiences.

Please contact rebecca@candovergreen.com quoting Job Ref: RB1735 with a copy of your current CV to get further details and register your interest.

Candover
Green