

Sales Executive

South/East Yorkshire

£Attractive

An innovative Waste Management & Waste Solutions company are looking for an experienced sales executive who will report directly to the Sales Manager and take on a number of responsibilities including; achieving set monthly new business targets through cold calling and appointments, increasing the company revenue through new business contracts, liaising with the transport, customer services and other management teams and departments, act as a point of contact for customers as and when required and report any issues to the Sales Development Manager on a regular basis and a number of other tasks.

In order to be considered you must have Waste Sector sales experience and a clean, full driving licence with your own transport as this role requires travel.

To find out more email your CV to rebecca@candovergreen.com with the job ref: RB1922

Candover
Green