

Transfer Station Chemist

Wales

£Attractive

We are working with an International Waste Management company who have the requirement for a results focused individual to join their expanding team in the waste transfer station department and assist the WTS Manager in safe, compliant, efficient operation and development of the waste transfer station as well as take on a number of responsibilities including but not limited to; arranging and preparing waste for outgoing loads, ensuring all loads meet all required legislation, liaising with the customer service and technical assessment departments to resolve issues such as non conformance, and ensure relevant records are maintained and adherence to systems and procedures.

In order to be considered for this role you must have previous experience in hazardous waste, a scientific/environmental qualification at a minimum of HNC level, hold or be prepared to work towards a Level 4 COTC qualification and strong computer literacy including ideally having experience with SAP.

For all details contact Becky via email at Rebecca@candovergreen.com with your CV & the Job Ref: RB2017 included.