

Technical Compliance & Hard Service Manager South West £Competitive

A global energy company now require an experienced TCHS Manager who will report directly to the Senior Facilities Manager and take on responsibility for compliance and the day-to-day operations of the fabric and M & E maintenance teams, including development of the engineers and contract, safely operating and maintaining all systems and associated equipment on site in line with current legislation.

Other duties will include, but not be limited to; maintaining a good working relationship with customer representatives and work in a manner which ensures that all aspects of the service agreement between our client and the customers are delivered within the requisite levels of professionalism, assisting in the delivery of these aspects in company performance contract as they relate to the site, including satisfying all the requirements of the company and the contracts with the customers.

In order to be considered for this role, you must have IEE regulations 17th or 18th Edition, Legionella Awareness, AP12- LV Qualified, Health & Safety Awareness, Health & Safety IOSH Managing Safety (or equivalent) and 2391 City & Guilds inspection & Testing (or equivalent).

For full details send an email quoting Job Ref: RB2078 to Rebecca@candovergreen.com with your updated CV attached.

