

Shift Leader

London

£Competitive

Our client, a leading services company now require an experienced Shift Leader to join their team based in London, and take on a number of responsibilities and tasks some of which will include the provision of all-round engineering support, maintaining the building infrastructure, act as co-ordination point for the day-to-day activities on site between the shift team, specialist service partners and on-going project works, ensuring all activities within the building are undertaken with a professional and conscientious outlook (in regards quality of work, Health & Safety and maintaining 100% uptime) and ensuring excellent standards of response to plant failures, completion of assigned work and ensure abnormal operating conditions are dealt with proficiently, as well as a number of other duties within this varied role.

The successful candidate will have critical services environment experience, have been HV authorised person previously or in their current role, hold 17th 18th Edition IEE: Wiring & Installation certificates, C&G 236 parts 1 and 2 or a mechanical equivalent and have done an apprenticeship, primary trade qualifications and have substantial building services environment experience and be HV/LV authorised.

For full details email craig@candovergreen.com quoting Job Ref: CM2127 and include your current CV