

Service Manager

South West

£Attractive

We are working with a well-established waste management company who have the new requirement for an experienced service manager who whilst reporting to the Operational Manager will take on a number of responsibilities and duties including, but not limited to; overseeing the operation of kerb side collections, work in line with the business objectives of a clean city through recovery of as much recyclable waste as possible and reducing the amount of residual waste sent to landfill, push to achieve a first-class service in all aspects of the role by ensuring Health, Safety and compliance are at the forefront of the operation and providing support to your direct reports when acting to resolve complex, sensitive or escalated customer complaints regarding service delivery issues, alongside a number of other tasks as required.

In order to be considered for this role you will have a full clean, UK driving licence, evidence of good commercial acumen, a strong understanding of transport management and fleet compliance, wide knowledge of the waste management industry and at least 18 months experience in managing a large operational team.

To register your interest and find out more email your CV to Rebecca@candovergreen.com quoting Job Ref: RB2123

Candover
Green