

Sales Executive

East Anglia

£Competitive + Car

We are working with a leading waste management provider who is looking for a proactive territory sales executive to join their expanding team and take on responsibility for selling our clients award winning services to all businesses from SMEs to large corporations whilst growing the business by delivering customer focused, value for money solutions.

The ideal candidate will have a UK driving licence, proven field sales experience with proven sales track record, be used to CRM systems, and be used to organising and managing a territory and ideally have waste and recycling industry experience.

For full details email your CV to Rebecca@candovergreen.com quoting job ref: RB2295