

Senior Landscape Architect

Scotland/Ireland

£Attractive

We are working with a multi-disciplinary environmental consultancy, who are looking for an experienced Landscape Architect to join their team in either Ireland or Scotland and take on a range of responsibilities, some of which will include; managing and undertaking Landscape and Visual Impact assessments and providing landscape design advice relating to those LVIAs, liaise with clients, local authorities and statutory consultees, undertake site visits, produce landscape plans and brief and manage technical staff to assist on your projects.

To be considered you must have a full driving license and you will be required to travel on occasion. You will have a minimum of 3 years experience in the UK/Ireland and proven experience with GIS & other software packages, hold Chartered Membership of either the Landscape Institute (LI) or the Irish Landscape Institute (ILI) or hold appropriate landscape qualifications and post-grad experience and have a proven track record in LVIA for EIA projects.

If you think you are suited and want to know more, email your updated CV to Rebecca@candovergreen.com quoting job ref: RB2329

Candover
Green