

Project Director (WEEE)

Saudi Arabia

£Attractive

We are working with a work leading Environmental Services company who has the requirement for a WEEE expert to be based in Saudi Arabia. You will be responsible for leading successful completion of projects and to launch a WEEE business. You will: direct, supervise and manage project(s) and/or multi-projects ensuring the quality of deliverables on time. Have strategic decision-making responsibility for the project. Work with Global leadership to deliver results that contribute towards achieving and/or exceeding strategic corporate goals focused on revenue growth, process efficiencies. Strong commercial and operational experience; In depth experience of WEEE waste and the legislation around it; Strong network of contacts within the sector; Demonstrate ability to deliver results to the appropriate quality and timeline metrics; Strong influencing and negotiation skills; Strong leadership and management; Sound judgment and decision making skills.

For full details, please email a copy of your CV to rebecca@candovergreen.com quoting job ref: RB2454

Candover
Green