

Environmental Compliance Manager

South East/London

£-attractive

I am working with a leading waste management company who have an exciting new role available. Working within the SHEQ team and onsite the Environmental Compliance Manager will be responsible for managing the organisation's environmental compliance and ensuring it complies with current regulations. Your role will include primarily the adherence to permits and regulations across the businesses processing facilities. You will be at the forefront of liaison between the company and the regulators ensuring that documentation, testing and other record keeping is up to date and completed. Some of your duties will include but not be limited to; managing compliance of the Environmental Management system; complete permit variations and new permit applications to the regulators; drive through Environmental and Carbon saving initiatives to improve operational efficiencies in a safe and healthy environment for the business; managing the companies route to Carbon Net Zero; work closely with the Head of Health, Safety and Compliance to embed a compliance culture within the organisation; conducting internal audits, external site audits, developing & reviewing policies, procedures and supporting documentation; Ensuring ISO accreditation is achieved and maintained; Monitoring the organisation's environmental performance against permit requirements and internal compliance targets; Auditing and updating the organisations Fire Prevention Plans, Odour Management Plans and Dust Management Plans; Developing, implementing and driving environmental strategies and policies; Reviewing the suitability of all regulatory compliance documentation and updating or rewriting where required; Report on environmental audits and make recommendations for future policies and strategy; Report the organisation's environmental performance to key stakeholders within the organisation; Develop and deliver environmental training for staff at all levels within the organisation; Liaising with regulatory bodies such as the Environment Agency; Lead on environmental investigations for significant incidents; Manage service agreements and contractors working with the organisation on environmental compliance projects. In order to be considered for the role, you will have/be; Able to communicate clearly, both written and verbally; Able to prioritise and organise own workload and meet deadlines; Strong operational planning skills; Ability to write and review Environmental Management System documentation such as Odour Management Plans, Dust Management Plans and Fire Prevention Plans; Competent in MS Word and Excel; Experience in environmental management in a large organisation or as a consultant with experience of working in large multi-site environments; Experience conducting waste audits and inspections; Experience with EA permits, fire prevention plans and dust management plans and Integrated Management Systems; Practical knowledge of environmental permitting and legislation; Experience of the waste industry; Academic or professional qualifications that would be important to the performance of this role; Degree (or equivalent) in an appropriate environmental discipline including corporate membership of an appropriate professional institution (or equivalent knowledge and experience); ISO 14001 Lead Auditor; NEBOSH qualified; WAMITAB qualified (desirable); Full UK driving License.

For full details, please email a copy of your CV to rebecca@candovergreen.com quoting job ref: RB2724

Candover Green Limited, 1B St Cross Road, Winchester, Hampshire, SO23 9JA, U.K.

Tel | 01962 658514 email | info@candovergreen.com web | www.candovergreen.com